Jemnice (18 km)
Former dowry town. Fortification of the town. The whole town core is surrounded by well-preserved ramparts with two bastions and two so called „barbakans“ (i.e. loopholes). The chateau Jemnice is a result of reconstruction of a Romanesque castle in 17th century. It is situated in a huge park, its area being 21 ha.

Castle Bítov (40 km)

One of the oldest and most romantic castles in our country (first mentions from 1061, 1067). Its situating is a unique one; it is standing on a headland surrounded on three sides by the river Želetava, near its confluence with the river Thaya, in a picturesque canyon of so called Moravian Switzerland.

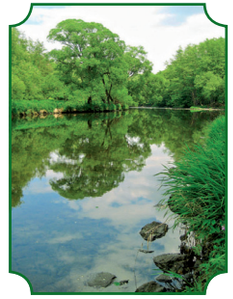

SOUTHWARD

Museum Humanum Fratres (3 km)
There is a unique collection of hundreds of small ancient sculptures, cult objects and pre-historic tools from five continents.

Chateau Dobersberg (10 km)
The chateau is a Renaissance square building with three floors, with forwarded round towers and quadrilateral tower topped with onion-shaped roof. The garden is attached on the West side. The entrance is covered by a ground Empire building.

National Park Thayathal Dobersberg (10 km)
A channel of wild water on the Moravian Thaya, forest instructive path and a forest nursery, deer park with game, playgrounds for children, watching wild boars, little pond at rocks, huge anthill, an aviary for pheasants.

Castle Raabs (26 km)
The defensive construction comes from 11th century standing in the place of original Celtic settlement based on ruins of stone buildings. The contemporary look comes mostly from the time of ruling of the mighty family of Puchheimers (1358 – 1702). Today the castle is a private property.

Kollmitz ruin (33 km)
One of the biggest castle buildings in Austria. Huge ramparts, dungeon and tower are preserved as well as a two-floor residence building.
